After an early breakfast at the hotel, depart for an adventurous visit to a water village. The unique water village of Nzulezu – a Nzema word meaning "built on water" – is a village built entirely on stilts on an open lake fed by two rivers. According to oral history and tradition, villagers migrated several centuries ago from Walata, a city in the ancient Ghana Empire, which fell in the year 1250. Enjoy a ride in a dugout canoe and in the village, interact with the locals and explore the surrounding area. Notice the solid wood construction of the houses and the raffia walkways. Later visit Fort Apollonia, located in Beyin. This fort was built in 1768 by English merchants and transferred to the Dutch in 1868, who renamed it after their King Willem III. The Dutch held it until 1872 when it was turned over to the British by a treaty. After touring Fort Apollonia, return to your hotel for an evening of leisure.
